

Fishermen lose friend and advocate in Bill Feinberg

STAFF REPORT

Local fishermen lost a good friend and staunch advocate this week with the passing of William

FILE PHOTO
William "Bill"
Feinberg

Asbury Park Fishing Club. "He did so many things just out of kindness."

Feinberg, a former

"Bill" Feinberg at the age of 90.

"He would do anything for anybody," said Joe Pallotto, president of the president of the club, was a member for 70 years. Pallotto said he once took on the town of Allenhurst all by himself over beach access and won.

Feinberg was an avid fisherman and a dedicated environmentalist, belonging to the American Littoral Society, Clean Ocean Action, Outdoor Writers Association and the International Game Fishing Association. He wrote and published numerous outdoor and environmental articles.

He also served on the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council.